Captain Gilman of the Harvard football team, Billy Boles and Tom Enwright, who were all dismissed from Harvard last week for low study marks, are the subject for an edimarks, are the subject for an edi-torial in the current number of the Harvard Alumni Bulletin, in which sympathy for the three men is denied and in which the prospects of the 1916 football team, in spite of the three-ply loss, are portrayed as radiant. The official organ of the Harvard alumni says:

alumni says:

"The Eulletin has no desire to add to the embarrassment of the three men who have recently 'severed their connection' with the college; they have probably been punished enough. On the other hand, we do not propose to give them much sympathy. They had every ground for knowing that their standing at the college office was precarious, and, although some interested parents seem to think the contrary, it is still possible for a student to maintain his rating at Harvard if he devotes a reasonable amount of attention to his college work.

"The undergraduates are afraid that the loss of the football captain and two other capable players may ruin the chances of the eleven when it meets its most important rivals next year. We do not share these fears. The dif-ference between the playing of a first string man and his next substitute is not great, and we believe that the not great, and we believe that the places of the missing ones will be acceptably filled by others who have been or will be developed under the system of coaching at Harvard. This optimism is based in large measure on our confident expectation that P. D. Haughton will have charge of Harvard football during the season of 1916."

WILLARD READY TO ENTER RING

Jess Thinks He is Physically Fit to Defend His Title of World's Heavyweight Champion—Expects to Enter the Fight Weighing 248 Pounds.

New York, March 19.-Perfectly BARNEY OLDFIELD LOWERS satisfied with his condition, Jess Willard said today he was physically fit to enter the ring at any moment to defend his title of world's heavyweight champion. He did not take any gymnastic or other exercise today except what Manager Tom Jones called "an energetic walk" of three and a half miles. The big Kansan then rested at his uptown quarters near Central Park.

For the last three or four days Willard has been speeding up gradually in his boxing bouts with his partners and for the next five days he intends to take on each of his sparring aides for at least three rounds. He has taken off much useless weight and yesterday tipped the scales at 251 He expects to enter the ring

Moran put in one of the busiest sessions of his training at his West-chester camp. This morning, after a cross-country run of four miles, he had made up his mind to take it easy, but a host of his newsboy friends from the city swarmed around the Hawkins roadhouse and he was un-able to resist their earnest requests to let them see him work out. The "newsies" cheered his every move-ment and in response to more en-treaties Moran boxed five rounds in which he took on Madden, McKinnon and Kendall at a lively pace. After a rubdown Moran mixed in with the ys and told them of his confidence in being able to win.

IRISH CONSTABULARY BARRED FROM ENLISTMENT

Irritation in Ireland Over Action of the Government.

DR. F. C. JACKSON

9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Dublin, March 19 .- There is considerable irritation in Ireland over the action of the government in refusing to the members of the Royal Irish Constabulary facilities to culist. There are ten thousand of these policemer in Ireland. They are men of splendid physique and enough of them to form two battalions of the Irish Guards are keen on entering the army. Dublin Castle, which controls them offers no caste, which controls them offers no objection. It is the treasury which stands in the way. The policemen, if they enlisted, would be enchanging twenty-five shillings a week for a shilling a day. The treasury which has met this difficulty in the case of other public servants, and the government which has meeted as private emment which has prevent as private emovers the duty of setting their men free for the many of decanteeing them all or a part of toelr wages, will not in the case of the Irish police folthem ail or a part of their waste, not in the case of the Irish police follow their own example and precept. There is thus a deadlock. John Redmond in presence of the Lord Lieutenant and Chief Secretary at a public meeting has condemned this action of the treasury. It is a serious hindrance to recruiting in Ireland, since it is difficult to persuade people in the country districts of the urgency of the need for men when they see the police kept back, though at the present they have very litle to do.
